SMYRNA OFFICER SAVES INFANTS LIFE

On July 09, 2014 at 2340 hours Master Patrol Officer Darrell Nesbit responded to 640 Glendale Place, apartment A3, Smyrna Ga. 30080 in reference to an eleven (11) month old child not breathing and unresponsive. MPO Nesbit arrived at the residence, took the infant from the mother, ran outside and began administering first aid on the trunk of his patrol vehicle. MPO Nesbit provided rescue breathing for the infant and after a short time the infant began to breath independently again. MPO Nesbit's immediate response and heroic actions are credited to saving the infants life.
